

CONVICTS DASH FOR LIBERTY; SEVEN DIE

THREE OTHERS WOUNDED AS PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM OKLAHOMA PRISON

Three Convicts Shoot Down All Who Cross Their Path In Their Break for Freedom--Succeed In Taking Warden's Horse and Buggy, But Are Overtaken and Killed by Guards.

MCLESTER, Okla., Jan. 19.—Seven men were shot to death and three persons were wounded today when three convicts attempted to escape from the state penitentiary and were slain by guards. One of the men murdered by the convicts in their dash for liberty was John R. Thomas of Muskogee, former United States district judge and once congressman from Illinois.

Others Dead.
H. H. Drover, superintendent Berillion department.
Patrick Oates, assistant deputy warden.
F. C. Godfrey, guard.
Chas. Reed, under sentence of two years for larceny.
Tom Lane, under five year sentence for manslaughter.
Charles Kootz, serving forty year sentence for manslaughter.

Wounded.
John Martin, turnkey, shot through cheek.
C. L. Wood, guard, shot through arm.
Mary Foster, telephone operator, shot through leg.

Only Three Escape.
Despite the commotion caused by the three men in trying to shoot everyone who came in their way, no general attempt was made by other convicts to join in the delivery. The three mutineers were encouraged by their less desperate fellows who cheered the onslaught of the armed prisoners.

So rapidly did the three convicts shoot down those in their path that they reached the prison gate before guards could return their fire. The desperadoes had taken the keys from the turnkey, John Martin, who they had wounded, and had sheltered themselves while crossing the prison yard by holding Mary Foster, a telephone operator in front of them until the only shot fired by guards in the yard hit the girl in the leg.

Seize Horse and Buggy.
Outside the gate the men seized the horse and buggy of Warden Dick and dashed away, only to be shot to death by pursuing guards. One of the convicts fought to the last, then he was shot through the head by the other two. They fired their last cartridges at the oncoming guards who poured in a deadly fire from horseback. Even after the three escaped men were lying dead in the bottom of the careening buggy, the frightened horse of the warden dashed onward until felled by a bullet from the pursuers.

How the men obtained the weapons and planned the escape has not been discovered. A rigid inquiry will be begun soon.

Reed Is a Gun Man.
Reed, Lane and Kootz worked in the tailor shop and when their work was ended for the day, they approached the back door of the office in the administration building.

Meeting Martin, the turnkey, they said they wanted to see the parole officer. As Martin opened the door Reed struck the turnkey repeatedly with a heavy revolver, shot him through the cheek and took his keys. The three prisoners, all armed with revolvers and shouting to others to follow them, ran toward the warden's office where they were confronted by Oates, the assistant warden. Reed shot him through the heart.

Great confusion ensued. Convicts ran about shouting encouragement to the mutineers. By this time the guards began firing. A random shot passing through a door in the office of Drover, the Berillion officer, killed him. He was rushing to aid his fellow officers when he fell. Godfrey, guard, sprang directly into the path of the mutineers, discharging his revolver at them. He, too, fell a victim to Reed's deadly aim.

Judge Thomas Killed.
John R. Thomas, formerly United States district judge and widely known through Oklahoma was sitting in the warden's office, waiting the return of Warden R. W. Dick, with whom he had a business engagement.

There must be some trouble outside," he said as he arose and walked toward the door of the warden's office. The mutineers fired several shots at him. He sank to the floor mortally wounded. The three convicts next gave their attention to the telephone switchboard. They turned it over and tried to disconnect it.

Shielded by Girl.
"You come with us," they shouted to Mary Foster, the operator, as they dragged the girl into the prison yard, holding her before them.

Shielded by the girl's presence and cheered by 1,500 other convicts, the three men quickly made their way across the prison yard. A guard fired at them, but his aim was poor. The bullet struck Miss Foster. As she sank to the ground, wounded, the convicts sprang to the prison gate. With the keys they had taken from Martin they unlocked it. Outside the gate stood the horse and buggy of Warden Dick. The three men sprang into the vehicle and started the horse on a run, whipping and shouting. On the wall the rifles began to puke lead.

Guards and prison officials quickly mounted horses and the pursuit of the convicts began. After a few minutes the guards came within hailing distance.

Reed Fights Battle Alone.
"You'll never take us alive," shouted Reed, as he stood up in the buggy and fired at the approaching officers. The other convicts bent low to avoid the spattering bullets of the officers. Reed fought the fight alone; fear stricken, the others crouched in the buggy.

Finally the horse fell shot to death and the convict ceased firing. The mutineers lay in a heap in the bullet-ridden buggy, their eyes staring.

Although the greatest confusion prevailed among the fifteen hundred prisoners, the guards soon subdued them and none escaped.

One of the guards tonight told of hearing a motor car stop in the road near the prison last night. He said the car remained outside the prison several minutes and then drove away. The authorities believe this car had something to do with the mutiny.

Were All Known as "Bad Men."
Reed, Lane and Kootz were known in the prison as "bad men." Reed had a long criminal record in the early days of Old Indian territory. He was sentenced to two years in prison last year on a charge of stealing a horse. Lane came from Pauls Valley on a forgery sentence of five years, while Kootz was serving forty years for manslaughter.

Patrick Oates the assistant deputy warden, came here from western Oklahoma. He was one of the most popular officers at the prison. He served in Colonel Roosevelt's Rough Riders regiment during the Spanish-American war.

Drover had been a photographer in McAllister for years and had but recently accepted the place of Berillion officer at the prison.

Judge Thomas was one of the first judges appointed after federal courts were established in Indian territory.

Thomas Former Illinois Man.
Muskogee, Okla., Jan. 19.—John R. Thomas, who was shot and killed at McAllister today by convicts in a dash for liberty served four terms as representative in congress from the fourth Illinois district from 1879 to 1889.

Shortly after retiring from congress he moved to what then was Indian Territory and in 1897 was appointed United States district judge in Muskogee, Okla. When his term expired in 1901, he engaged in the practice of law in this city. Mr. Thomas also had served as past grand master of the Masonic lodge in Illinois. He was 66 years old and was born in Mount Vernon, Ill. His son, John R. Thomas, Jr., is a captain of the first regiment, United States infantry, stationed at Honolulu.

POPULACE AFTER DRIVING COUPLE TO SUICIDE WILL ATTEND FUNERALS

CORTLAND, Illa., Jan. 19.—The populace of this village is preparing to follow in a body the funeral of John Aldis and his sixteen year old niece who killed themselves as a result of the denunciation that followed their marriage. Three weeks ago when it became known that Aldis and his sister's youngest daughter had been married nearly two months the couple were threatened with tar and feathers. The indignant villagers refused to speak to the girl and the public prosecutor warned them that they must either have the marriage annulled or leave the state.

Aldis finally went away but no one would have anything to do with the bride. She sent for Aldis. A few hours later they were found dead.

BEARDSLEY ASSERTS HE WILL SURRENDER

DECLARES HE WILL MARCH TO JAIL WITHOUT SHERIFF'S HELP

Sheriff Anderson is Satisfied the Outlaw is Sincere in His Promise to Give Himself Up Tomorrow as He Seems to be Preparing a Legal Defense.

MAYVILLE, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Sheriff Anderson failed today in two attempts to break the seven day siege of the Beardsley farm at Summerville and to arrest Edward Beardsley. In the first he used two out of town detectives, posing as photographers to get close enough to Beardsley to grapple with him. Beardsley posed for a picture at the window but never relinquished his rifle and the detectives could not carry out their plan.

Late this afternoon, Fred Beardsley, a cousin of the besieged farmer, Axel Olsen, a friend and Luther S. Lukin, county clerk, visited the outlaw. The sheriff thought Beardsley might surrender to Mr. Lukin. Beardsley received them at the window and talked freely, but stuck to his determination not to surrender.

"I will surrender on Wednesday when the mother-in-law takes the kids," he said. "Then I am going to jail with Attorney Pickard. If there's any monkey business from the sheriff and his gang there's going to be trouble. I'm going to march to the jail without their help."

Beardsley said the woman in the house, Mrs. Edna Pier, who was wounded by the accidental discharge of a revolver last night was all right but would not be able to take her turn at guard duty. The fact that Beardsley seemed to be preparing a legal defense has satisfied Sheriff Anderson that the man is sincere in his promise to give himself up Wednesday. He will not, however, let an opportunity go by to capture the man.

COUNTRIES MUST ACCEPT REVISIONS ADOPTED BY DECEMBER

All Countries Represented in International Convention Must Accept Revisions by December 14, 1914.

London, Jan. 19.—December 14, 1914, is the time limit set for the acceptance by the various countries concerned in the convention drawn up and unanimously adopted by the revision committee of the international conference on safety at sea which practically concluded its labors at the British foreign office last night. If the treaty is approved it will go into effect July 1st, 1915.

The convention is to be signed by all the commissioners to the conference at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon after which it will be sent for approval to the United States senate and to the executive bodies of other countries.

Among the proposals accepted by the conference was Rear-admiral Washington J. Capps' system of making ships, so far as practicable, unsinkable. The American naval officers which received great praise divided a ship into side, cross-wise compartments, each of them being water tight. Thus, if, as the result of a collision either end or either side of a ship is smashed in the water cannot go beyond the particular compartment penetrated.

The question of wireless telegraphy equipment was settled by exempting ships carrying less than fifty passengers and also vessels plying within one hundred miles of the shore, from carrying wireless apparatus.

A special miniature life-saving apparatus for children also was approved. The closing session will be addressed by Lord Mersy, president of the conference, Sidney Buxton, president of the British board of trade, United States Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois and M. Gagner of France.

PLEADS FOR SOCIAL CENTER MOVEMENT.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Miss Margaret Woodrow Wilson eldest daughter of the president rose from her seat in the audience at a civic improvement meeting here tonight and made a plea for the movement to have school houses of the country opened to the public as "social center."

"The social center movement," she said, "is the fundamental principle of Democracy. No matter how cultured, we are, we cannot get ideas alone and we must get together and get them from each other."

NOMINATION CONFIRMED.
Washington, Jan. 19.—The nomination of John Skelton Williams, now assistant secretary of the treasury, to be comptroller of the currency and as such ex-officio member of the federal reserve bank board, was confirmed by the senate in executive session late today.

MURDERS HIS WIFE TO MARRY STEP-DAUGHTER

MURDERER ASSERTS GIRL IMPORTUNED HIM TO DISPOSE OF MOTHER

Robert Higgins of Galesburg, Confesses His Part in Murder of His Wife—Julia Flake Tells District Attorney of Her Infatuation For Higgins—Girl's Letters Prove Her Undoing.

GALESBURG, Ill., Jan. 19.—Robert Higgins today confessed he murdered his wife at New Henderson, Ill., January 5, so that he would be free to marry his step-daughter, Julia Flake, 15 years old.

He was arrested after the girl told the state's attorney, John Wilson, of Mercer county, of her infatuation for Higgins and that she importuned him to dispose of her mother, who she said was the only obstacle between her and happiness.

The prosecutor hesitated to believe the girl's story but the girl told how she had schemed for hours devising a plan which would make Mrs. Higgins' death appear accidental. She said she was in the next room when Higgins fired the shot which killed her mother. She told how Higgins raved and struggled with neighbors for possession of the gun, saying he would end his own life. Then when the excitement subsided somewhat, she said, they explained that Higgins had been cleaning the shotgun and it had been accidentally discharged. Their story was so convincing the coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death. No one of the 300 residents of the village suspected anything regarding Mrs. Higgins' death and they comforted the widower and his apparently grief-stricken step-daughter.

Then C. W. Ernst, a maternal uncle of the girl, took two letters written by Julia Flake—one to himself and one to his daughter—to state's attorney Wilson. In these letters the girl offered part of a legacy of $7,000 she is to receive when she becomes of age for providing that they would help her to kill her mother. Mr. Wilson thought the letters were written in a fit of anger but he investigated. Saturday he called in State's Attorney A. J. Boulette of Knox county and Sunday they went to see Julia, who was at the home of another uncle, A. J. Ernst at Hermon. They were astounded by her story.

Higgins, who is 26 years old and several years the junior of the woman he killed, was found today at New Henderson. He was questioned for several hours and made many contradictions. Enroute to the county jail at Alton in an automobile he broke down.

"I can't stand it any longer," he moaned. "I'll tell everything."

The journey was interrupted at Alton where Higgins was taken into a bank office and signed a typewritten confession.

He gave what he said were all the details of the murder plot and his sordid that Mrs. Higgins became suspicious of his relations with her daughter and they planned to get rid of her.

The girl who is at the home of an aunt here became hysterical on learning of Higgins' confession.

"Julia hasn't slept for weeks," said her cousin, Marie Ernst.

In the letter written to Miss Ernst, Julia made her first proposal to bargain for the murder of her mother. This letter follows:

"Dear Honey:
"I wonder if your father would entertain any notion of killing mother. If he does I wish he would hurry up and do it, as I am getting awfully tired. I wish he would try to come over here to Windham's a couple of days next week. Of course he would have to do it when father and I are away. He could go to the house where father is shucking corn and I am at school. Tell him to come when he can at recess."

The letter she wrote to her uncle was in substance:

"I wish you would try to come over here. I am awful mad. If you will do what I want you to I will pay you well, but not until I am 18. You can come to see me at the school at recess. Why didn't Marie answer my other letter?"

Mr. Ernst told the state's attorney he did not see the letters because he was not on speaking terms with her, but that he did go to the school house and tell Julia not to write any more such letters.

"DR. LANOIX" DIES SUDDENLY IN WYANDOTTE COUNTY JAIL

Prisoner Held For Death of Florence Crowley Succumbs To Acute Uremic Poisoning.

Lanoix, formerly of Quincy, Ill., died suddenly late today in the Wyandotte county jail in Kansas City, Kan., where he was held pending appeal from a conviction of causing the death of Florence May Crowley through an illegal operation. Acute uremic poisoning caused death.

Martin formerly was a drug clerk for the original Dr. Lanoix at Quincy. At that trial he was brought out that upon Dr. Lanoix's death Martin appropriated the physician's license, assumed the name Dr. Lanoix and came to Kansas City, where he operated.

McCUMBER OPPOSES BILL FOR BUILDING RAILWAY IN ALASKA

Measure Proposing Building of Government Railway Meets Opposition

AMENDMENT REJECTED

Amendment Providing Government Steamship Line on Pacific Coast Rejected by Committee

OTHER NEWS OF WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The bill proposing the building of a government railway in Alaska encountered its first vigorous opposition in the senate today when Senator McCumber attacked it as the first step toward the "realm of paternalistic and socialistic government." Until the North Dakota senator spoke, Senator Williams was the only member who had directly stated his purpose of opposing the measure on which there is an agreement for a final vote Thursday.

Amendments adopted today by the committee on territories would provide for the taking over by the government of any existing lines, necessary by purchase or condemnation. An amendment providing for a government steamship line from the coast terminal of the road to ports on the Pacific coast was rejected by the committee on the ground that it would complicate consideration of the bill.

Senator McCumber attacked the whole theory of government ownership. He said experience had shown that it cost the government twice as much as a private concern to operate any enterprise. Government departments in Washington, he insisted paid twice the salaries paid for similar services outside of government employ and an extension to the proposed government railroad could be looked for. Arguments presented during debate for agricultural development in Alaska, he declared, were without merit, the fact being that the great majority of the products named in statistics read into the record came from districts accessible by sea or which it was not proposed to tap with the projected railroad.

"Why should the government develop coal producing regions," Mr. McCumber asked. "It cannot be eaten; it is not good for clothing; it merely adds to the bulk of the coinage. Only the man who digs it from the ground benefits."

During the discussion Senator Clark of Wyoming declared that while tests had shown Behring district coal to be better than the West Virginia products actual naval tests aboard ship proved that "Behring field actually falls down" in supplying coal the navy could use.

Senator Jones replied that he had a letter from a former member of congress saying the coal used in the naval tests aboard the Cruiser Maryland was not properly gathered and did not furnish a fair sample of the product of the field.

Mothers' pensions were proposed today in a bill introduced by Representative Gorman of Illinois. All widowed mothers, having one or more children under 18 years and made dependent by death or disability, would be placed upon the roll for $10 or $15 a month.

The agricultural extension bill, providing for federal aid in the dissemination of scientific farm information by practical experiments and through publications, was passed by the house today by a vote of 177 to 9. Under the measure the various state agricultural colleges would receive federal funds to finance plans for acquainting the farmers with facts established by the department of agriculture.

As it passed the house the bill would provide for an immediate appropriation of $480,000 of which $10,000 would go to each state to play with the requirements of the law. This appropriation would be increased by $300,000 each year for nine years and after a ten year period would become a permanent annual appropriation of $3,000,000.

The bill is scheduled for consideration in the senate Thursday.

Congress will meet in joint session in the house chamber tomorrow to listen to the fifth message of President Wilson, his special address on the subject of the trusts, and their regulation.

DEFEATED MEXICANS ARRIVE AT MARFA

WILL BE HURRIED TO FORT BLISS RESERVATION TODAY

Less Than 200 American Cavalry men Brought the Refugees Over the Trail—Mexicans Cling to Pets With Tenacity.

MARFA, Tex., Jan. 19.—Almost all of the 3,300 Mexican soldiers and the 1,367 women and children refugees who were driven out of Ojinaga, Mexico, by the rebels had arrived in Marfa from the border tonight and the first train load of them was made ready to go to Fort Bliss at El Paso, where they are to be interned indefinitely.

The Mexicans with General Salvador Mercado and other federal commanders, probably will arrive on the Fort Bliss reservation before daylight tomorrow. Like the common soldiers, General Mercado and his officers will not be permitted to leave the barbed wire stockade. The women and children, likewise, will be denied permission to leave, since they elected to remain with the soldiers.

The exhausted and half famished soldiers literally dropped on the ground when they arrived. The camp provided for them witnessed all day an unbroken rush of soldiers, women, children, horses, burros and dogs, and when the vanguard reached here the rear still was ten miles away. Less than 200 American cavalrymen, commanded by Major McNamee had brought the refugees over the trail and had kept them from straggling from the line. On the way a baby girl had joined the procession.

A feature of the long "hike" was the tendency with the long Mexican clung to pet dogs, burros and fighting cocks, which they insisted having beside them. When the saved of steaming soup and baking bread from the American army kitchens there was a wild scrambling of animals and people to the spots where food was to be distributed.

Might Cross to Mexico.
El Paso, Texas, Jan. 19.—Rebel leaders at Juarez today sent word to Brig. General Scott that they feared the federalists when interned at Fort Bliss would attempt to steal across to the Mexican side and rejoin the Huerta army.

The rebels asked that the refugees be removed from the border. General Scott replied that precautions had been taken to prevent the escape of any federalists. The refugees on their arrival here are to be guarded night and day by four companies of infantry.

General Francisco Villa sent word from Chihuahua to his chiefs at Juarez that he expected to come to the border with a few troops to transact routine business in connection with the rebel government.

Confers With John Lind.
Vera Cruz, Jan. 19.—Jesus Flores Magón, ex-minister of interior and candidate for the vice presidency of the republic at the last election who arrived from Mexico City yesterday reputedly of the representative of President Huerta conferred at length today with John Lind, president Wilson's personal representative. After the conference Mr. Lind said he had greatly enjoyed the visit of such a distinguished Mexican but added that the conference lacked any political significance. He said he would meet Senor Magón again tomorrow. Asked if it was true that Senor Magón represented President Huerta, Mr. Lind said the ex-minister had given him no intimation that such was the case.

Excites Deep Gratitude.
Washington, Jan. 19.—The kindly treatment accorded the Mexican federal refugees from Ojinaga by the American government has excited deep gratitude among the people of Monterey and vicinity and has done much to encourage the belief that the United States really is friendly to the Mexican people according to a report to the state department today from Counsel Hanna.

Congress will be asked to give the war department an indefinite credit to meet this expense although the department officials realize this may precipitate an undesired congressional discussion of the whole Mexican problem. Ultimately Mexico will be expected to reimburse the United States in full for all amounts spent in this way. Today's reports to the state department said the appearance of many constitutionalists in the neighborhood of Torreon has led the American consular officer at that place to apprehend that an early seige at the hands of Villa's victorious army. This would be the third time this town had been attacked during the present revolution, a tribute to its strategic importance from a military viewpoint.

R.R. COMPANY MEETS DEMANDS OF UNION AND SETTLE STRIKE

D. & H. R. R. Officials Restore Two Discharged Employees to Positions

ALL MEN RETURN TO DUTY

All Strikers at Once Return to Work After Demand Is Met—Federal Mediator Successful

MEN DISCHARGED YEAR AGO

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 19.—The strike on the Delaware & Hudson was settled tonight. Company officials met the union's demands that they restore two discharged employees, Engineer James A. Lynch and Conductor F. A. Slade to their former positions. All strikers will return to duty at once. G. W. W. Hanger, a member of the federal board of mediation and conciliation brought about the agreement.

As soon as Clifford S. Sims, vice-president and general manager of the railway and union officers had signed the agreement, orders were sent out for men to report for work as quickly as possible.

Slade and Lynch were discharged more than a year ago when a car on their train jumped the track and bumped along on the ties for three and a half miles. The union officers maintained that the accident was unavoidable and that no serious damage was done.

For several months the company and union officials debated the proposition of restoring the men to work. Then a week ago ninety-eight per cent of the employees voted to strike if Slade and Lynch were not restored to duty.

The bill proposes to divide the appropriation among states in proportion to the rural delivery routes and post roads in each state. PLAIN EDUCATIONAL MISSION RALLY

Church Representatives Arrange for Union Gathering to Create Interest Feb. 1 and 2.

Representatives of a number of the churches of Jacksonville met Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. to make arrangements for an educational missionary rally to be held Sunday, Feb. 1, and Monday, Feb. 2.

The pulpits of the participating churches will be filled by missionary educators Sunday and a special program now under preparation will be carried out the second day of the rally. The purpose of the rally is to arouse enthusiasm and create interest in home and foreign missions. No appeals for money will be made.

The movement was started at a meeting of representatives of the Home Mission Council of the United States and the Conference of Foreign Mission Boards of North America. The desire is to enlist all the members of churches and congregations in the great work of missions, to have every member of the church and congregation seen and urged to take part.

At the Y. M. C. A., building last evening the work of appointing committees to make the work a success was begun. A good number agreed to serve and as soon as all the committees are filled the named will be published.

IN THE COUNTY COURT.

The case of D. A. Sevier vs Alex Ham, charging forcible detaining and possession of a ten acre tract near Waverly, was heard in the County Court Monday. The case attracted considerable interest from the fact that the defendant conducted his own case, maintaining that he didn't need a lawyer to handle affairs of that kind for him. The case was originally tried in a justice court in Waverly and came to the county court on appeal. In the justice court hearing, Ham also acted as his own attorney winning a favorable verdict. In that hearing Mr. Sevier was represented by T. E. Smith and E. Etter, and in the county court trial Mr. Smith again appeared for Mr. Sevier.

It seems that Mr. Sevier had rented ten acres of land to Ham and the fact that some of Ham's hogs rooted up the ground resulted in the suit for possession of the property. Mr. Sevier claims that Ham agreed not to have his stock run at large in the way and Ham on the other hand maintains that Mr. Sevier agreed to furnish fencing repairs which were not forthcoming. The jury that heard the case included, H. C. Busby, E. F. Seymour, C. A. Million, J. J. Newell, Walter Adkins, C. E. Patterson, W. L. Leach, George W. Stout, John Snyder, T. C. Chumley, Edgar Cooper and F. C. Weiss.

GOOD OIL PROSPECT.

The work of cleaning out the well and putting in new tubing is now under way and within a short time it will be in full operation. The output however immediately after the well was shot gave certain indications that it will be a good producer. Edward Brennan, formerly of this city who is also interested in the project also owns leases on several thousand acres of coal rights in the southern part of the state which promise to be very productive.

Although the recent referendum vote of the membership of the Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers' union was overwhelmingly against affiliation with the American Federation of Labor, the officers of the organization say that it is possible that the delegates to the local unions may decide in favor of the consolidation plan when they vote at the annual convention which meets next week in Houston, Texas.

THE PURCHASE OF TAILORED APPAREL

is like any other purchase—it does not pay to skimp quality. There is no satisfaction in owning an inferior suit of clothes—no pride of possession. You know, and so does any one else familiar with clothes, that it possesses no marks of individuality.

Quality demands a fair purchase price. When a suit or overcoat is offered at a ridiculously low price, you may be assured that they are not clothes you would care to own; that however absurd the sum you pay, you are not receiving fair value for it.

We carry the finest grade of woollens obtainable, and we offer the most reasonable prices possible, quality considered.

POLE TAX MEASURE PASSED

BY THE CITY COUNCIL

Will Levy a Tax of One Dollar a Year on Telephone, Telegraph and Light Company Poles—Plan for More Wells on Widenham & Daub Land.

At the City Council session Monday morning the most important action was the passage of the pole ordinance which levies a tax of one dollar on telephone, telegraph and light poles.

After the usual routine of business the pole tax ordinance was given a second reading and it was passed by a vote of two to three. Commissioners Newman and Engle voting against it. Mr. Newman said he was in favor of a pole tax all right but that the franchise ordinances should be given attention before any action of this kind was taken. He said that he had been trying for almost three years to get the council to act on the franchises and that he had accomplished nothing in that line and suggested that it was time to resume the work on the franchises. He mentioned too that the Light Company had offered to pay the city $7,500 a year but Mr. Knollenberg asked if there were not various strings attached to the offer.

Mr. Newman also said that he had understood that the council previously declined to do paving on certain streets because to order the railway company to put down pavement would be equivalent to acknowledging the company's right to do business on the streets and he wanted to know why conditions were changed and now the council desired to pass a pole tax.

Mayor Davis asked if it was not true that Commissioner Newman was opposed to the street car franchise when it was passed by the council about one and a half years ago and that since that time the council had been passing a more strict measure than the one which had been presented before the council recently. The mayor asked also if it wasn't true that Mr. Newman was in favor of dismissing Mr. Haigrove when as city attorney he gave an opinion that paving could not be done on account of the franchise.

Mr. Engel wanted to know if the present city attorney had ever been asked for an opinion on this same subject. Mayor Davis said that he didn't think an opinion had been asked for. He said that before, he had been in favor of going ahead with paving and had not changed his mind on the subject.

Mr. Newman asked if something could be done to increase the water supply at the Widenham and Daub wells and Mr. Brennan replied that Mr. Knollenberg had several propositions from well digging concerns and machinery people and that just as soon as a few more replies are received the matter would be presented to the council. It is the desire of the water department to increase the supply from the Widenham & Daub land. Mr. Knollenberg said that along with other propositions was one from a firm wishing to put down a deep well. Mention was made of the fact that the election redistricting work has been commenced. The council then adjourned.

WILL LECTURE ON SOCIALISM.

J. O. Bentall Will Discuss This Important Subject at the Court House Tonight and Wednesday.

J. O. Bentall of Chicago, will discuss Socialism at the court house this and Wednesday evening at 7:30 and will incidentally handle the subject of "Municipal ownership," and its relation to the trusts.

Several years ago Mr. Bentall spoke in Central Park, and all who heard him will remember him as a very entertaining and instructive speaker. Mr. Bentall was formerly a minister, has wit and humor, and is a logical and scientific reasoner.

The subject which he comes to present, as the duly accredited representative of the Socialist Party, is being more generally discussed than any other subject of modern times.

One Socialist writer says: "Most every one knows what Socialism is, or what it is not, and some even assume to speak authoritatively with reference to a subject of which they know nothing."

"Socialism is an economic science that comprehends the sociology of history, and is taught as a destiny, rather than a theory. It is the most powerful movement of all history, and is the most potent factor now being developed within the modern state. As such it has got to be reckoned with. If it is wrong, if it is not sound in logic or morals it can only be fought intelligently by those who understand its logic, and that knowledge is not to be had, except from its acknowledged writers and speakers. One would not try to learn blacksmithing from the preacher or preaching from the hod carrier. Therefore come and hear this subject discussed by one who speaks authoritatively. If his logic is unsound, no partiality will be shown to any one who desires to take issue. Any one will be welcome to do so."

PROBABLE ELECTION DATES.

Unofficial news comes from Springfield that Gov. Dunne has decided to issue a call for a primary election in this judicial district for March 24th and will fix the date for the election proper as April 27th. The call it is understood has been submitted to Attorney General Lucey.

SUGGESTS AGREEMENT ON SHORT TERM CANDIDATE.

While Governor Dunne is getting ready to call a special election in this judicial district to choose a successor to Judge Thompson, it is understood that a movement has been suggested for an agreement among the various candidates upon someone to take the short term and then retire without being a candidate for re-election.

The advocates of this plan point to the fact that under present conditions there will be a large expenditure and a lot of work for each candidate and that then the successful one will hold the office for but one year. They say, too, that a reapportionment is also entirely likely by the next legislature and that the district may be so materially changed that there will be an entirely new alignment for the next election.

The advocates of this peace plan, at least some of them, are suggesting that the candidate to be chosen or agreed upon for the one year be taken from some county which has not been represented on the bench for a great many years and that a candidate be named who has not made any formal announcement in the present campaign. Scott county has been suggested as one source from which such a candidate could be drawn and it is maintained that an able lawyer could be nominated from "little Scott" who would give good service upon the bench for one year and that he would agree to retire from office at the expiration of one year without being a candidate for re-election.

In considering the primary campaign and the one which will follow, those most interested have estimated that each candidate will spend at least $2,000 in addition to a great deal of time. As another argument in favor of agreeing on the short term candidate, it is suggested that if the campaign continues as it has started out, that there will necessarily be a good deal of soreness develop, and that even should there be no re-apportionment, that the man elected for the short term without any agreement arrangement, would when a candidate for re-election a year hence, have a lot of opposition to battle against, resulting from the aforementioned soreness.

"The wet" and "dry" proposition has also come to be a factor in this district and just what effect it will have in the judicial contest, the political leaders are unable to figure out, and some of them argue that by the time of the regular election in 1915, that they will know something more about the general alignment in the district on this question.

A letter has been sent out from Jersey county sources, suggesting that the several candidates meet and talk over the proposed peace plan and it may be that such a gathering will be held. It is safe to predict that if the candidates attend such a gathering that they will do a great deal of figuring to see if they can arrive at any special motive behind the agreement suggestion and will make a strong effort to decide whether the plan would or would not result to their ultimate detriment.

THE TAX ON POLES.

The pole tax ordinance which was passed by the city council yesterday contemplates the levying of a tax of one dollar annually on each and every telephone, telegraph and light company pole in the city, extending eight or more feet above the ground. A similar tax is levied in Springfield and some other cities. There are said to be between 8,000 and 9,000 poles which will be subject to the tax. When the ordinance becomes effective it is likely to increase too in the total number of poles as there will be a general cleaning up of poles which are used jointly by any two companies or by the city jointly with any company. There are said to be poles which are carrying wires for the city, the light company and both telephone companies. No doubt the companies will now order the city to take their wires from their poles and the city will order any other wires from their poles. It is presumed that no company will want to pay a tax on a pole which is being shared with somebody else. There may be some advantages in this cleaning up in lessening the danger of wire crossing. The day will no doubt come when all wires will be ordered laid underground.

GUARDING THE PUBLIC HEALTH.

The order which the city health department has issued requiring school children to present a health certificate each week is a somewhat vigorous measure but seems to be the proper course under present conditions. There have been and are so many cases of throat trouble that the physicians of the city have feared some grave epidemic if effective measures were not taken to stamp out whatever the source of the trouble may be. People are naturally careless in observing rules to prevent the spread of contagious diseases so long as those diseases are in mild form and about the only sure way to know exactly the condition of the school children is to have them examined once or twice a week. It is understood that practically all the city physicians have agreed to make no charge to children or their regular patrons for this work and that parents who wish may send their children to the city physician or the county physician without cost.

OLD TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

Dr. John Hickey of Mercedosa was among the Monday business callers in the city.

MAN LEGALLY DECLARED DEAD IS BELIEVED TO BE ALIVE

Decatur Man Said To Have Been Found In Pennsylvania.

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 19.—Mont Shultz, a printer who disappeared from the banks of the Sangamon river near Decatur, October 6th, 1906 and was last fall declared legally dead, is said to have admitted his identity in Sharon, Penn., today. Shultz carried $7,000 in life insurance in three fraternal companies and his so-called widow had entered suit for that amount. Shultz was fishing at 10 p. m., when last heard from, having called to a companion for help. He was wading in the river and when his clothing was found on the bank he was supposed to be drowned.

Rumors had come frequently, however, from Cleveland, Ohio, and later Pennsylvania that a man who resembled Shultz closely was working at the printer's trade there. Harry English, a Decatur acquaintance, confronted Edward A. Boyer in Sharon today, and is said to have secured from him a confession that Boyer was an assumed name. It is stated that Boyer is engaged to marry a Sharon girl. Shultz left besides his wife, a son and a daughter in Decatur.

FAVORS RE-INTRODUCTION OF FIELD JUDGE IN FOOTBALL

Walter Camp Discusses Approaching Meeting of Rules Committee.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 19.—In discussing the approaching meeting of the football rules committee in New York next month, Walter Camp the Yale football authority and a member of the committee said tonight he was in favor of the re-introduction of the field judge as an official. The game itself has reached such a high state of perfection, he said, that there is little room for improvement in the rules.

"All players and coaches look forward with more or less anxiety to this meeting," said Mr. Camp, "for upon its action depends the kind of game they will be obliged to learn for the coming fall. For two years now, the rules have remained so stationary that they have had a fair test in actual play and the game resulting apparently has been satisfactory, while still admitting of a much further development."

Mr. Camp favors the field judge because the plays made possible under the forward pass and quick kicks are beginning to take on such a complicated variety that two officials no longer can be expected to cover every point.

NEW CURRENCY MEASURE PREVENTATIVE FOR PANICS

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—The new currency bill is a preventative for panics and business depression, in the opinion of Edward H. Doyle, of Detroit, speaking today at the convention of the National association of bank supervisors of which he is president. Supervisors from twenty states are here discussing ways and means of carrying out the provisions of the law.

"Until it had been threshed over the bill was so thoroughly impractical no consideration was given to it by state bankers," said Mr. Doyle, but through the wisdom of some mighty power it was whipped into workable shape, and if the management can be kept free from politics and I believe it can, it will prevent financial panics and business demoralization.

SERIES OF DECISIONS NARROW THE FIELD OF DISPUTE

Supreme Court Decisions Settle Many Controversies Between State and Federal Courts.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The field of dispute between state and federal courts which has given rise to many bitter controversies over jurisdiction was materially narrowed in a series of decisions announced today by the United States supreme court. With one exception every decision announced by the court touched upon some phase of the controversy. In a Vermont case the court upheld the right of railroads to initiate proceedings to test state rates in the state federal courts rather than in the supreme court of Vermont. The state legislature probably will be called in special session to remedy the situation.

In a Kentucky case, the court announced that state courts must accept as true, alleged facts set forth in petitions for removing cases from state to federal courts. Under this ruling attacks upon the truthfulness of the petition must be postponed until the case gets into federal court. Passing upon a Mississippi case the court upheld the right of federal courts to dismiss a proceeding because the suit was not begun with sufficient service in the state court.

I was covered with eczema from head to foot when I began using your remedies. I could get no relief, although I tried a thousand means. JOHN T. ALEXANDER DISCUSSES LIVESTOCK MARKET CONDITIONS

Takes View of Prospects For 1914—
More Heavy Beef Cattle Last Year
Than In 1912—Best Demand Now
For Light Cattle.

John T. Alexander has returned to Chicago after a brief Jacksonville visit. Mr. Alexander came to Jacksonville after attending the convention of the Illinois Live Stock Breeders association in Peoria and a similar gathering at Columbia, Mo. Mr. Alexander who is known as a veteran Illinois cattle dealer and commission man takes a hopeful view of livestock market conditions and of business generally for the coming year. He believes that the passage of recent legislation has had a tendency to settle business. Mr. Alexander's views are reflected in the following statement from him.

Moderate Supply In Sight.
"We were all so badly disappointed in the fat cattle market last year, especially on our good fat long fed cattle, that I feel some hesitancy in predicting the market for this year. In olden times they stoned false prophets, and if that was the case now, I fear many of us would have broken heads."

"The demand just now is good for the bulk of the beef cattle, and I am very hopeful it will continue that way. As to prices, they will depend upon the supply and present indications are for a moderate supply during the next forty to fifty days, and a very light supply during the spring and early summer months, for the big winter feeding country west of the Missouri River, will be a small factor in the supply this year."

"I think I can conservatively say that Iowa, the greatest feeding state of cattle and hogs, will fall fully one third short of last year, and undoubtedly Illinois and Missouri will fall very short. Now as to prices, or how high they will sell, very much will depend on the industrial situation of the country. However, I believe the business of this great country is gradually adjusting itself to the new conditions and will soon be back to normal. Our American people are meat eaters, and if they are prosperous, they will buy it."

"During the past year baby beef has been very popular and I am of the opinion that it has come to stay. There is a good demand for it every month in the year. Of course the price fluctuates according to the supply and in proportion to some extent, to the price of the bulk of the beef cattle."

Many Calves Being Fed.
"But one extreme generally follows another, and this year I am fully convinced there is a much larger proportion of calves being fed than there is of older and heavier cattle, and I think during this year you will see a big spread in prices in favor of the good weight or heavy cattle, especially as corn is so high. The tendency will be to make short feeds, and I look for a very short supply of long fed heavy cattle during this year."

"Feeders are high, corn and roughness is high. My observation on our market, and my information generally from other markets, and the cattle feeders over the country, is they are feeding calves, or if feeding steers intend to make short feeds and get rid of them as quickly as possible. There has been a strong tendency to buy cows, heifers, bulls and steers to feed; anything to get away from the high price of feeders, which looks to me like it might be a mistake. For if free beef from South America is to materially effect the prices of beef in this country, it appears to me, it will be on the cheaper grades of cattle and not on the good to choice kinds of corn fed cattle that are used to supply the high class trade in this country."

"All this leads me to believe there will be a great shortage of well fat-fed cattle during the spring, summer and fall months, especially of long fed choice cattle of all weights and believe they will sell exceedingly high again during the year of 1914. However, very much will depend upon the condition of the country generally, as I have said before."

"There was a great deal of talk of a short supply of cattle in 1912, but corn the fall and winter of that year was so much cheaper than the year before, and cattle feeders made more money in 1912 than any one year previous, which induced everybody to feed cattle for 1913, and there was no great shortage of beef cattle. Instead of a shortage, there was more thick fat, long fed, heavy or good weight cattle on the market during the last half of 1913 than there was during the last half of 1912."

Lightweights In Strongest Demand.
"As they can only use about so many heavy cattle each week and month during the year to supply a certain class of trade out large cities and at sea sides, and mountain resorts, when we have an oversupply, (as we did this year), the light and medium weights are in strongest demand and sell at comparatively higher prices than the heavy cattle. The long fed heavy cattle this year, in many instances showed a loss to the feeder, or a very small margin, while the yearlings and short fed cattle generally showed a profit."

"I believe there is world wide shortage of cattle and with the increased demand for baby beef taking our calves and yearlings—when in former years they were not slaughtered until they were three year olds; and remembering that our population is increasing, I believe it will be several years before the supply catches up with the demand."

STOCKMEN MEET IN DENVER.

Denver, Col., Jan. 19.—Leaders in the live stock industry in the United States, who are organized for purposes of mutual benefit under the name of the American National Live Stock association, are flocking to Denver for the association's 17th annual convention. The convention sessions will be held in the Broadway theatre, beginning tomorrow morning, and continuing until Thursday. President H. A. Jastro will preside and many persons of prominence will be speakers. The effects of the new tariff law on live stock and packing industries will be exhaustively discussed. Other matters that will receive the attention of the convention will include commission charges, railway service, meat inspection laws, the oleomargarine tax, and the elimination of valuation clauses in live stock contracts of railroads. In connection with the convention the ninth annual western stock show was opened at the stockyards here today and will be continued through the week.

DAIRY SCHOOL AT PURDUE.

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 19.—Hundreds of progressive farmers and dairymen left their homes in various parts of the state today, with Lafayette as their destination and at noon they began to arrive on every train, all prepared to be enrolled in the annual dairy school at Purdue. The short courses in dairying began this afternoon and will continue for eight weeks. Two separate courses are being given, the farm dairy course and the creamery course.

MONTANA MERCHANTS MEET.

Great Falls, Mont., Jan. 19.—Great Falls is entertaining for three days the annual convention of the Retail Merchants' association of Montana. President S. F. Sanden of Helena called the gathering to order today. Many trade questions are on the program for discussion.

WILL RE-DISTRICT CITY FOR ELECTION VOTING PURPOSES

Work of Gathering Necessary Information Has Begun—More Districts Must Be Created to Comply With Law.

The work of re-districting the city has been begun by City Engineer E. M. Henderson in accordance with instructions received from the council. Previous to the enactment of the equal suffrage law there were one or two districts in the city having more resident voters than is permissible under the law and now that women can vote each district has twice as many or more voters than the law contemplates. Before the plat can be drawn it is necessary to secure the names of residents and just where they live, and for the purpose eight canvassers will be put to work to gather in the necessary information. Some of them began work Monday and among the number were Charles Elliott and Roy Goodrick in the 4th ward; Harry Walters and Fred Goodrick in the 3rd ward; and Theodore Arisman in the first ward. The other three will begin operations today. The canvassers will be paid 2 1/2 cents per name. When any one of these solicitors calls upon you just remember that the information desired is simply for the purpose of aiding the work of re-districting the city in a way to comply with the election laws.

MISS WILSON AND THE TANGO.

Starkville, Miss., Jan. 19.—Miss Eleanor Wilson's name is being used as a leading argument in the fight here for the tango, the one step, the hesitation waltz and other modern dances. Headed by the local W. C. T. U. many prominent citizens are urging the city council to pass an ordinance prohibiting the much discussed dances. The council, although it is delaying action in order to ascertain public opinion. Students of the state agricultural and mechanical college and many of the leading young women of the place are opposing the proposed ordinance. Several of the Starkville society set attended the ball of the Twelfth Night Revelers in New Orleans two weeks ago, when the tango and similar dances were freely indulged in. They returned with the word that Miss Wilson had tangoed and "hesitated" with as much grace and liveliness as any one present and that what was good enough for her, daughter of the president was good enough for the young ladies of Starkville. Advocates of the dances are now conducting a very active campaign and the town is divided into two well defined and almost equally influential camps and interest is running higher than in any political contest since the days of carpet bagging.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to all who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our loved daughter and sister Edith, also for the many beautiful flowers.

Especially do we thank the employees of the State Hospital for their many kind attentions and their beautiful floral contributions.
Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Todd and Family.

INSTRUCTION FOR

HOUSEKEEPERS
Urbana, Ill., Jan. 19.—Women from all over the state are attending the "housekeeper's school," which was opened here today under the auspices of the department of household science of the University of Illinois. The course will continue ten days. University of Illinois teachers appear on the programme, which is divided into lectures on the house, food, clothing and health.

"PIRGIMS OF IOWA."

Illinois College has educated many men to do valiant service for God and humanity and it would take a long time to tell the story of all their lives.

Truman Orville Douglass was the name of one of them. He was graduated from "the College on the Hill" in the class of 1865, with Eli B. Hamilton, John J. Brubolt, David King, Chas. A. Turner and Hiram B. Metcalf. In college he was a member of Sigma Pi society, in which he took a leading part. Mr. Douglass came here from Plattville, Wis., although he was a native of Illinois. After graduating here he became a Congregational minister, and was pastor at Osage, Iowa, from 1868 to 1882, when he became home missionary secretary of the Congregational church in Iowa until 1907, since which time he has been an associate secretary. He has at least two sons engaged in the ministry in the Hawkeye state, T. O. Douglass, Jr., and H. P. Douglass. The latter having since been a preacher in Springfield, Mo., and both superintendent and secretary of the American Missionary association. He has also written a valuable work, entitled, "Christian Reconstruction in the South." Our T. O. Douglass says of himself that he was "born in Illinois, resided in Wisconsin, lived in Iowa" but the latter leaves out the hot days of the war, when he spent his college life here in Jacksonville. His work at Osage, Iowa, a new town when he went to it, must have been successful, for he must have been successful, for he often called to the missionary work for his denomination in the state of Iowa, a wide field, and no doubt again he was successful, for he stayed in that service 25 years, and then, at 65 years of age, was still occupied as an associate.

It goes without saying to any one who knew "Douglass," as we called him, that faithful work would characterize anything he undertook, and his brethren in the Congregational church evidently thought him the right man in the right place in our peripatetic home missions. As any one who knew the "father" of the church, who was one of the mid-day workers, and who had his own children following him in the good cause, Mr. Douglass, who had now become a doctor of divinity, stated at a comparatively late meeting of the Iowa association, that some one ought to write the history of their church in that commonwealth. So it soon came about that his words were turned back on himself, and Dr. Douglass was called upon to make the history which, perhaps, no one could do so well. And thus was evolved "The PIRGIMS of Iowa," dating from the first beginning of their church there. In Dubuque, about 1836 the Congregationalists began their regular work. A work of gospel service and of Christian education. Mr. Douglass' book is one of over four hundred pages, and it is shot through and through like the texture of cloth with references to Jacksonville and to people well known here.

Among them was Rev. Asa Turner, brother of our Prof. J. B. Turner. Another was Rev. Wm. Kirby, who "prospected" in Iowa at an early day. Still another was Prof. C. W. Clapp, of Iowa College, Grinnell, and father of Clement L., Prof. Edward B., and Elliott Clapp, as well as of two delightful daughters, Misses Annie and Abbie. The story of Iowa could not be told without the name of Rev. Julian M. Sturtevant, Jr., D. D., some time minister at Grinnell, Iowa. There were others, probably, of the ministers known of here, one being Prof. Rhebur Taylor, and Jas. G. Edwards' wife is particularly referred to. Mr. Edwards was one of the first editors of Jacksonville, and afterwards founded the Burlington "Hawk Eye." The story of these Iowa pioneer and later preachers is finely, clearly and quite fully told by our Illinois College man, and the book has a remarkably good condensed history of all their churches in that state, with epitomized sketches of all the preachers. To this is added a full index, so that altogether the work is an exceptionally satisfactory one for the purpose. With a proper spirit of reverence for his alma mater, Dr. Douglass sent a copy for the college library, and any one interested can find it there.

EXTRA SESSION IN OHIO.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 19.—Convened in extra session by Governor Cox to consider and act upon a number of matters of much public importance, the members of the Ohio general assembly gathered here today. The governor desires the legislators to amend the banking laws to meet the provisions of the federal currency act; to enact measures to safeguard and protect the initiative and referendum law, and to change the election laws so as to give the governor the power to fill vacancies in the United States senate occurring between elections. A measure providing for centralization and supervision of rural schools and special training for school teachers will be considered, also a measure to give miners pay for all coal taken from the mines.

TO BE TRIED FOR

LOGUE MURDER.
Chicago, Jan. 19.—John Faith, under indictment in the Logue murder case, was arraigned before Judge McDonald today for trial. Joseph H. Logue, the murder victim, was an aged jeweler and money lender doing business in a downtown office building. In December, 1912, he was stabbed, beaten, shot and burned to death by acid. The murder occurred in his office in the middle of the day. The motive for the crime was never determined, nor was the slightest clue to the murderers obtained for nearly a year. Some months ago a tale told by a woman led to the arrest of Faith as one of the murderers. Faith is alleged to have made a partial confession in which he implicated Harold Schneider. Schneider was recently tried and acquitted on the charge.

IN MEMORY OF GENERAL LEE.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 19.—The 107th anniversary of the birth of General Robert E. Lee, the famous commander of the confederate armies, was celebrated throughout the south today. In eight states—Arkansas, Alabama, Florida, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Mississippi—the day is a legal holiday and is marked by a partial cessation of business activities. Commemorative exercises were held in all the public schools and at meetings of many patriotic and historical societies. In many cities these exercises were supplemented by civic and military parades.

'FRISCO POLICEMEN ON TRIAL.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 19.—Four former members of the San Francisco police force were brought into court today to stand trial on a charge of grand larceny. The accused were alleged members of the Italian bunk gang, said to have cleaned up a half million dollars the past year or two. The four officers are already under conviction and sentence on a conspiracy charge.

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT OF ULTIMATE SUCCESS

"ORGANIZED BASEBALL" PRE-DICTS LIFE OF FEDERALS WILL BE SHORT.

Headquarters of Federal League
League Presents Busy Scene—
Thirty Three Major League Players Sign Contracts With Feds—Umpire William Brennan Signs
Three Year Contract—Other Sporting News.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Developments today in the newest baseball war left both sides—the aggressive outlaws of the Federal League and "organized ball"—confident of success.

Predictions that the new league would give up the ghost in a short time were made by President Johnson of the American League and President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals. Lack of preparation in a number of towns, although the opening of the season is less than three months away, was given as a leading reason by prophets who expect the federals' end soon.

Meantime at the headquarters of the Federal League there was a busy scene all day. According to John Tinker, manager of the Chicago Federals, there are forty ball players in town and "most of them" were up here today, as one of them put it, after watching the crowd in Gilmore's office.

Among the visitors were Russell
Ford and Ed Sweeney, the New Yorkers' Americans' battery, both of which were closeted with Tinker and President Weegman of the local club for some time.

Whether either or both of them had signed contracts with the Federals was not announced. Howard Cannitz, the former Pittsburgh pitcher traded to the Philadelphia Nationals had a private discussion with Doc Gessler, the Pittsburgh manager.

Despite reports that Killifer and Kirkpatrick had not signed with the Federals, President Gilmore this afternoon exhibited contracts signed by these men. A total of thirty-three major league players have signed with the league he said, eight of them having joined the new organization since Saturday. Infielder McCarthy of Pittsburgh was a caller at the office early this evening and conferred with Tinker. Felix Chouinard, formerly of the Chicago Americans and later with Des Moines, also consulted with the Federal League and indicated he would also sign with them.

William Brennan, National League Umpire, this afternoon signed a three year contract with the Federals. Just before he signed he received a telegram notifying him that a new contract from the National League had arrived at his home in St. Paul. Seven other umpires of high class are on their way here to talk with the Federal leaders, Gilmore said.

Weegman repeated today that he would stand by the new league, declaring that since the stormy meeting of Saturday he was sure it would be a success. In this connection, President Murphy claimed to have information that Weegman's protest at the meeting against "carrying three clubs" resulted in a verbal attack on him that "created wounds that cannot be healed."

Start Fund for Olympic Team.
New York, Jan. 19.—The initial move in the campaign to collect funds for the American Olympic team of 1916 was made today when Secretary James E. Sullivan of the Amateur Athletic union issued a mail vote, the proposition to give $2,000 of the union's funds to the American Olympic committee.

President Lill has prepared a statement advocating the plan and it is thought the various associations and officers of the organization will vote unanimously in favor of the donation. In addition the individual clubs of the union will be requested to subscribe direct to the Olympic team fund, pledging a given sum to the Olympic committee treasurer.

It is estimated that more than $150,000 will be necessary to transport and board the players at the Olympic games. It is understood the American Olympic committee desires this sum in hand or pledged some months in advance of the dates of the games, in order that every arrangement may be made for the comfort of the athletes, trainers and others who will make the trip to Berlin.

Will Meet Lincoln's Birthday.
Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 19.—Jim-at the Vernon Arena.

Eddie Campi, the San Francisco bantam and Kid Williams of Baltimore also were matched for a twenty round bout at 116 pounds ringside February 13th.

Races Are Cancelled.
Chicago, Jan. 19.—Out door ice pionship which were to have been held at Detroit January 19th and 20th, have been cancelled it was announced by Allen I. Blanchard, president of the International Skating association. The indoor championships will be decided January 21st and 22nd at Cleveland as announced.

man today signed a three year contract at an annual salary of $7-000 to play third base for the Chicago Nationals.

Dame's University's football

Notre Dame officials announced late today that the agreement for the game had been signed by both institutions.

lished here today.

breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup foul, constipated waste, undig-ested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless, "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all sizes and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be

LITERBERRY.

During the past year the Baptist Sunday school have had an average attendance of 42; offering, $82.03.
The school will take up the graded lessons in the near future.

S. H. Crum had a birthday last Tuesday and more than likely it would have passed quietly with Mr.
Crum knowing anything about it had not Mrs. J. M. Litter stirred up one of those Litterberry dinners and invited an able corps of good eaters to demolish it. This corps consisted of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McPhail, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Crum, Mr. and Mrs. D. K.
McCarthy, Mrs. J. A. Litter, Mrs. J. F.
Berry of Jacksonville, Mrs. O. M.
Petefish, and we'll include Mr. S. H.
Crum, for he was the leader. This spread was given at the home of J.
M. Litter on Broadway. Mrs. Litter being assisted by her husband and her sister, Mrs. S. H. Crum. Those who have ever visited Litterberry, and been a guest at one of these dinners need no further description.
After dinner the guests congregated in the east parlor, where the ladies treated the audience to some of the old time songs, among them "I Wandered Today to the Hill, Maggie,"
"Pass Under the Rod," "Belle Mahoney" and "Gathering Up the Shells from the Sea Shore." At a late hour the friends departed for their homes wishing for Mr. Crum many returns of this important occasion.

We have a walking club at Litter-berry. Last Saturday Messrs. Elmer Henderson, Clyde Martin, Ed Litter and Prof. Jones walked into Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Crum of Crum Villa spent Friday night with friends in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Aaron Petefish and Mrs. Luther Cooper were callers at Sunshine Cottage Thursday afternoon, and this office is under obligations to Mrs. Petefish for a sample of fine red apples.

Mrs. Atherton of Jacksonville and Miss Mabel Atherton of Pleasant Plains came down Friday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Litter.

A birthday anniversary came off Saturday east of town at the suburban home of W. H. Crum. East View, where Miss Alta Crum was the honored one, it being her eighth birthday. Mr. Crum came to town in a big wagon and conveyed the little guests to the place of their meeting. The ride there and back was almost as much fun as the party.
Children present were Evaline Hull,
May Hixon, Helen Young, Mabel Nellie Parks, Barbara Cooper, Olive Hitchens, Alma Lindsay, Bertha Olroyd, Thelma Litter, Gladys McWilliams, Mary Maul, Mildred Under-brink, Don Chapman, Fred Southern, Harold and Earl Petefish, James and Russell Dunlap, Elizabeth Martin, Landis Young and Louvina Tribble.

The Misses Lora Petefish, Wilma Crum, Ethel Sorrells and May Martin acted as hostesses to this important gathering of citizens of the United States. The best of refreshments were served and quite an interest was taken in the cutting of the novelty cake, Miss Alta Crum getting the darling needle, Thelma Litter, the ring; Helen Young, the thimble, and Russell Dunlap, the dime. They certainly all had a fine time.

Our reporter tells us that Willard
Young, Sr., had a birthday dinner Sunday in Jacksonville. About 24 persons, children, grand children, and friends assembled at Mr. Young's rooms and at a table in Mr.
Hugh Chaney's dining room, where they had a feast equal to any in the land. A number of Litterberry people were present.

While writing of the good things in this land, we acknowledge the share that came to our table last week: A pitcher of Jersey cream,
Mrs. Crum; a fine mess of apples,
Mrs. Petefish; sausage and pigs' feet,
Mrs. J. A. Litter; old style splendid head cheese, the kind mother used to make, Mrs. J. A. Daniels. We say again, Litterberry is a good place to live.

served the space to tell the public generally about the methods he has found the best.

Mr. Wood's plan for getting best results is by the use of his improved grain softener and of his recently invented stover rack and troughs. The two, used in conjunction, double the nutrient value in corn and produce results which are guaranteed.

Here are the results which this method will produce and Mr.
Wood is ready to guarantee the figures:

WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

NEW HIGH PRICES ESTABLISHED FOR UPWARD MOVEMENT

Although Gains Ran from 1 to 2 Points, Profit-Taking in Final Hour Cut Into the Advance—Traders Are Cautious.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The advance in the stock market was resumed today. A majority of the speculative shares overcame the affect of the reaction last week and established new high prices for the upward movement. Gains in many instances ran from 1 to 2 points although profit-taking in the final hour cut into the advance.

Traders moved cautiously and the volume of business was not large.
Operators on the long side, in consequence moved slowly today and this tendency was emphasized by the fact that outside buying of investment stocks which supported the market last week, played only a small part in the day's transactions.
Reading was the conspicuous exception to the day's movement. It was consistently under pressure and its backwardness was a drag on the general market. The copper were strong, being influenced by increasing activity in the metal markets here and abroad. Steel shares also were in good demand. London buying of steel and the copper assisted the upturn in these shares. In other quarters of the market however, London sold stocks.

Old Time Sores And Ulcers Healed

Old Wounds Often Bother Many Years After.

People who have been puzzling and anxiously seeking a cure for years and years, marvel at the way it heals quickly after using S. S. S.

When you come to realize that the skin and the flesh beneath are composed of a network of tiny blood vessels you solve the mystery.

There are wonderful medicinal properties in S. S. S. that follow the course of the blood stream as naturally as the most nourishing food elements.

It is really a remarkable remedy. It contains one ingredient, the active purpose of which is to stimulate the tissues to the healthy selection of its own essential nutriment. And the medicinal elements of this matchless blood purifier are just as essential to well-balanced health as the nutritious elements of the meats, grains, fats and sugars of our daily food.

Not one drop of mercury or drugs is used in its preparation. Ask for S. S. S. and you desire skillful advice and counsel upon any matter concerning the blood and skin, write to the medical department, The Swift Specific Co., 210 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Do not allow some shoddy clerk to larrup the atmosphere in elegance over something "just as good" as S. S. S. Beware of all substitutes.

NEWS NOTES OF THE FARM

SOME OF THE FARMERS living west of Farmer City are losing their horses. One man lost two and another one during the past few days. It is thought that the deaths are caused by eating musty corn.

ABOUT SIXTY TAZEWELL county farmers combined in the purchase of over 200 bushels of Nebraska grown alfalfa seed, so as to have something which is suited to their needs and is reliable in every way. It means that the acreage in alfalfa in Tazewell county will be more than doubled this year.

SIXTY FARMERS AROUND Morton drove to Tazewell recently over the rough roads to listen to the discussion of economical live stock feeding. Some of these men drove as much as six miles, and some came even further on the interurban. At some of the other meetings this also was the case.

THE LIVINGSTON COUNTY Farmers' Institute in session at Pontiac passed resolutions strongly endorsing the Soil and Crop Improvement Association and recommending every land owner in the county to co-operate with it. This association will be asked to help plan and conduct future institutes.

THE STRIKE OF THE hen's union here is getting pretty badly smashed. Whether this happy state of affairs was brought about by the walking delegate being consigned to the stew pot or some other reason is not yet clear, but the hen is becoming more amenable to reason and the reluctant and toothsome egg is much more in evidence than it has been for the past two months or more.

ONE OF THE LARGEST land deals transacted in this section of the state in recent years, marking an unusually high price for land values, was made Friday when C. E. Robinson, president of the Kankakee Republican Company disposed of his fine farm consisting of 306 acres adjoining Chebanse in Otto township at the record-breaking price of $260 an acre. William E. Peters of Herscher and H. F. Nordmeyer of Otto township purchased the property, which is considered one of the most valuable farms in northeastern Illinois. Mr. Peters secured 266 acres, including the homestead, and Mr. Nordmeyer taking the forty acres, which adjoins his present farm.

ROBERT W. WOOD is a farmer of Gifford, in north Champaign county, who has used some rock phosphate on his corn land and found that it helps a great deal in maturing the corn. The corn of Champaign county and neighboring counties has graded very low up to the present time. Very little of it graded at all. Phosphorus is an element that helps the corn to mature better and after cropping our land for a good many years there is a lack of phosphorus and thus the corn is grading lower each year. Mr. Wood has good results with both yield and maturity in using phosphate.

How the Corn Was Raised. Mr. Wood applied 1,000 pounds per acre to 80 acres all on clover sod. One-half of the field was plowed under in the fall and the other half in the spring but no particular difference could be told in the yield. All ground was rolled and harrowed. The fall plowing disked. All corn was harrowed after coming up and cultivated four times. The field yielded 30 bushels per acre and was raised practically without rain. Very little, if any other corn in his neighborhood would grade above No. 4 and some of it would not grade. His land is rather high and it has not had any stock or phosphorus on it until last year.

It Helped the Yield, Too. Beside that 80 acres there are 60 acres that has not had any treatment and it was handled practically the same way. It yielded 10 bushels per acre and was not matured. About half of it was saved by the use of the silo, from which Mr. Wood is now feeding 25 head of fat steers, 13 head of horses and 40 head of hogs. The ration is being balanced with cotton seed meal.

MINERS TO FRAME

WAGE DEMANDS

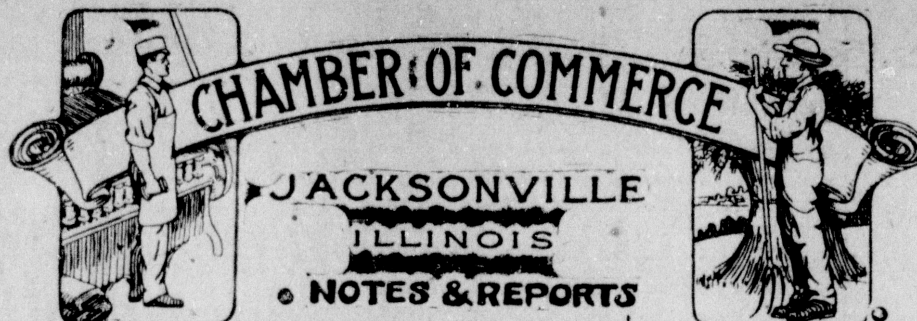

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 19.—More than 1,500 delegates, representing approximately 415,000 members of the United Mine Workers of America, have arrived in this city in anticipation of the opening of the twenty-fourth international convention of the organization. The convention will have its formal opening in Tomlinson Hall tomorrow morning and the sessions this evening will continue for about three weeks. As usual, the most important matter to come before the convention is the framing of the new wage scale to replace the present contract with the operators, which will expire on April 1. The miners will consider and decide upon the demands which they will present at the joint conference to be held with the operators next month.

RETURNS FROM VISIT.

Capt. F. C. Taylor returned Monday from Rushville where he spent the past two days with his mother, Mrs. T. G. Taylor and his sister Mrs. J. G. Nolan. Mr. Nolan, who has been in the lumber business in Rushville for the past twenty-seven years, has disposed of his business and next Monday expects to leave, with his wife and her mother, for a sojourn of possibly three months at Los Angeles, Cal., and other Pacific Coast cities. At Los Angeles they will visit with Mrs. Ida Scott Taylor McKinney and her niece, Miss Mary B. Taylor who holds a position in one of the prominent banks in that city.

The Chautauqua Booster Dinner

Tonight—Mr. Shaw Will be Here.

Some have not realized it, but tonight at 6:15 is the time for the Chautauqua Booster dinner. More interest has been taken in this plan for getting all the Chautauqua enthusiasts together than the committee in charge had anticipated. From the reservations which are being made the time seems to suit a great many and in addition it will not require the entire evening. The program of toasts will begin promptly after the serving of the splendid menu, which has been prepared by the ladies of the Rebecca Lodge for the reasonable price of thirty-five cents per plate.

The by-laws of the Chautauqua organization will be adopted and each person having subscribed for five or more of next year's season tickets will have a vote for the officers to be elected. This is an important meeting with pleasure combined with business. Every business man, woman, ticket subscriber and booster for a great Jacksonville Chautauqua should be present at this dinner with its open invitation to all. You will have no trouble in finding the place for it is the Odd Fellow Hall on West State street.

INSPECTED CITY'S SOURCES FOR SUPPLYING WATER

Commissioner Newman and Party Made Tour of Inspection Sunday Afternoon—Main Source is From Widenham & Daub Wells.

By invitation of Commissioner Wm. Newman, a party of citizens visited various sources of the city water supply Sunday afternoon. The trip was made in Mr. Newman's car and proved very interesting to the members of the party who were in addition to Mr. Newman, Dr. J. C. Widenham, Dr. E. F. Baker, W. B. Miser, and W. S. Camp. They first drove to the reservoir up near the Deaf and Dumb; then to Morgan Lake, and the City Pumping station proper; finally to the Widenham and Daub wells.

Talking of the trip yesterday Mr. Newman said: "At the reservoir near the deaf and dumb the water was at high mark. The supply at the lake is exceedingly low and it is necessary for the city to get water there practically each day. At the pumping station there was some little water above the dam and it was evident that this supply came from the lake because the bed of Mauvoisie creek shows that the stream is dry. At the wells the pumps were going and our estimate was that they were producing about 500,000 gallons a day. This is not sufficient for the city's daily consumption and it is therefore necessary to take some water from the lake every day and it seems to me that the situation is getting bad."

"The city in my opinion should get busy and sink more wells on the Widenham and Daub land and thus increase the supply from that source. There has been talk about putting down more wells but nothing has been done. It seems to me that the water question just now is more important than that of light and some money should be spent on putting down the wells."

NERVOUS DYSPESIA, GAS OR INDIGESTION

Each "Pape's Diapepsin" Digests 3,000 Grains Food, Ending All Stomach Misery in Five Minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

Their large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Adv.

HOT TEA BREAKS

A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hambur Brust Tea" at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

The Municipal Affairs Committee of the Omaha Commercial club has started a movement towards the prevention of "crooked" contractors from securing any more paving contracts in the city. At its meeting on Thursday it was decided to recommend to the new Municipal Affairs Committee that steps be taken to enact state laws that would afford proper protection in the matter of paving contracts. Recent investigations of the quality of work done by certain paving contractors in this city bring to light the fact that a certain contractor had lived up to the specifications on less than 15 per cent of sixty-five contracts that had been awarded him in Omaha. In some cases where the specifications called for five inches of concrete only three inches had been laid.

SHOULD NOT TURN HORSES AT LARGE TOGETHER. Care should be exercised at this time of year about turning horses and mules into lots together on account of the danger of the animals kicking one another when rough shod, points out a Jacksonville veterinarian. Horses at large in droves are likely to kick one another and the heavy shoes with caulks used in winter are liable to inflict serious injury. A farmer north east of the city lost a mule last week as the result of a fractured leg caused by the kick of another mule and other farmers in the vicinity have had stock disabled in this way recently.

TO MEET WITH MRS. FAIRBANK. The Mission Study Circle of the Congregational church will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. J. C. A BREACH OF PROMISE CASE.

Prominent Citizen Charged With Trifling With a Widow's Affections.

For some time, it is alleged, one of our prominent citizens has paid more or less attention to a young and beautiful widow of this city, forgetting or at least not heeding the advice of the immortal Mr. Weller to his son Samuel to "beware of the widows."

He now claims that he was not serious in his intention and that he was not attached to her, but however that may have been the widow became attached to him, and as he seems to have lost interest in the matter she has attached his property, which is a form of attachment that he does not enjoy.

The result is, that he finds himself the defendant in a first class Breach of Promise Case and his questionable attitude towards the widow will be given an airing in the near future.

The parties in the case are so prominent that it is feared no court room will hold the vast crowd desiring to attend the trial, so it will be held in the Grand Opera House, on Tuesday evening, January 27th, under the auspices of Jacksonville Y. M. C. A., for whose benefit the proceeds will be devoted.

In other words, it will be a Mock Court Trial, and it promises to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of many years, as a large number of our leading people will participate in the proceedings.

The committee having the trial in charge have engaged Col. A. V. Newton, the well-known lawyer-lecturer of Worcester, Mass., to attend to the details and personally conduct the entertainment.

Col. Newton has had remarkable success in conducting similar entertainments and without doubt the Breach of Promise Trial will be here as elsewhere, an event long to be remembered with pleasure.

CERTIFICATE OF HEALTH ESSENTIAL

SCHOOL CHILDREN MUST CON-SULT PHYSICIANS.

The Prevalence of Contagious Diseases Causes City Health Warden Dr. A. M. King To Issue Strict Orders Relative To Quarantine and Examinations—Statement by Health Warden.

As a result of the prevalence of several contagious diseases in the city, measures are being taken by those in authority to stop their spread. Monday, City Health Warden Dr. Allen M. King, made an official announcement, that no later than Wednesday morning, pupils in the city, whether the public schools or colleges, must present to the proper school authorities, a certificate of health, signed by a physician, showing that they have no contagious diseases, nor in their families. It is the intention of the authorities, to bar from the schools any who appear Wednesday morning, without the proper certificate. As has been previously mentioned there are several cases of tonsillitis, diphtheria, measles, mumps, scarlet fever and erysipelas in the city, also small pox and chicken pox. In a great many instances where quarantine has been established the parties have been very lax in keeping it and in some cases have totally ignored the rules of quarantine. This condition makes it very difficult for the physicians and others to check some of the maladies. Not only do the authorities expect to have the pupils present health certificates tomorrow but they will be required to do so the following Monday and each succeeding Monday as is deemed advisable.

It is understood that the majority of the Jacksonville Medical club favors making the inspections without charge, and that very likely the rest of the Jacksonville profession would do likewise.

Dr. King Intervened.

In speaking about the matter Monday Dr. King said: "I think that this procedure is one of the most simple that could be carried out, for it does not work any hardships on any one but it is the physicians, and it is a well known fact that they try to safeguard the community at large, and in a great many instances to their financial loss. In taking this into consideration, I can see no reason why the public will not unite with us, in stamping out what may be a bad epidemic of contagion."

Parents Favor Move.

Yesterday I received numerous telephone messages from parents, stating that they were highly in favor of the move and that they thought it was much better to lock the barn door before the horse was stolen than to wait until it was too late. The teachers were unanimous in their support and offered their help in the matter. There are some people who think it might work hardships on the poor, but they will be taken care of by the county physician and myself, should any physician see fit to make any charge for the inspection, and health certificate. It is understood that quite a number of children were discovered to have contagious diseases or else some member of their family and were refused the health certificate.

For some little time the public have been very lax in reporting contagious diseases to the physicians and in some cases even going so far as to shield the children, and in so doing laying the public open to exposure.

Sunday Schools Should Act.
I think it would be a good idea if the Sunday school of each church would delegate one or more of the teachers or members of the church to inquire of each child, before they entered the Sunday school room, whether or not, they or their family have any contagious disease. I understand that the State Street Presbyterian church has already been on the look out for contagious diseases and would recommend that the rest of the churches do likewise.

Many Need Vaccination.
One would be surprised to know the number of children and adults in the city who have never been vaccinated, let alone those who were vaccinated years ago and who would now be as liable to small pox as if they had never been vaccinated. The school boards have done their best to require vaccination but this in no way reaches the adults who have never been vaccinated or those in whom the previous vaccination has long since lost its effectiveness.

A great many of those who are in quarantine have no idea of what it means. They think all that is necessary is to have a card tacked on their house and in one instance I know of late, in a case of a small pox quarantine, one of the members of the family deliberately left the house and I understand, went to a grocery store, where of course they would come in contact with not only patrons of the store, but also of the eatables. Of course this is more serious matter than if they do the same while under quarantine for one of the milder diseases, as measles, or mumps.

But quarantine is quarantine and that means that while the card is on the house, or the family has a contagious disease, they are bound by law to stay on their premises, and, in breaking quarantine lay themselves liable to fine or imprisonment.

To Punish Offenders.
Hereafter if I discover people breaking quarantine or not reporting contagious diseases to their family physician or to myself, I will see that they are punished to the full extent of the law. I don't want to be hard on anyone, but it is their duty for their own sake and of the public that they should exercise more care in contagious diseases.

PLEASING PROGRAM GIVEN

BY MISS ESTELLE C. M'KAY

Instructor of Voice at the Woman's College Heard in Splendid Recital in Music Hall.

Miss Estelle Collette McKay, who came to the Woman's college last fall, as one of the instructors in voice, appeared in a recital for the first time last night in music hall and was cordially greeted by a large audience. Miss McKay possesses a coloratura soprano voice of unusual compass and remarkable flexibility. Her dramatic temperament is also a feature of her work and her interpretation is good. The program she selected disclosed a number of different styles of vocal work from the lighter English numbers of today to the old style, in Handel and Haydn. Her coloratura work, perhaps, showed to a better advantage in the first part of the program and especially in the selection from Verdi, "A. fors'e lui che l'anima." The audience found especial delight in her Scotch melodies and her rendition of them displayed most praiseworthy talent. All together her program was enjoyable and the audience evidenced their pleasure in a felicitous manner. Miss Deane Obermeyer, the accompanist gave the singer wonderful support and added no little merits to the evening of song.

TESTIFIES AGAINST BROTHER

OF LATE VICE-PRESIDENT

State Highway Contractor Asserts R. W. Sherman Demanded Campaign Contribution.

New York, Jan. 19.—R. W. Sherman, former Democrat mayor of Utica and brother of the late Vice-president James S. Sherman, threatened James W. Johnson, a state highway contractor of Utica, that if he did not contribute to the Democratic party, he would get no accommodations "at Albany" according to Johnson's testimony today at District Attorney Whitman's John Doe investigation in state highway graft.

Johnson said he declined to contribute and the final payment of $3,257 on a state road contract he had completed was held up by the state highway department for nine months. Former Mayor Sherman approached him in regard to contributing just before the election of 1911, Johnson said.

Daniel L. Mott, another Utica contractor, testified that he was solicited in 1912, by somebody who said he represented Everett P. Fowler, the so-called Tammany "Bagman", he too declined to contribute and that pay on his contract was held up from November 1912 to June 1913. Mott also testified that in 1911 he was unable for two months to get the state highway department to sign a contract for road building.

The inquiry adjourned until Wednesday when former Governor Sulzer, it was announced will be called as the principal witness.

TWO CHICKEN THIEVES BROUGHT TO JUSTICE

Culprits Caught By Officers Moore and Deatherage Sunday Night—One Out on Bond—Oswald Jenkins In Custody—Attempted Holdup.

Justice was swift Sunday night in the case of Mutt Miller and James Lewis who were placed under arrest a few minutes after they had robbed the hen roost of Alexander Melvid, 834 West Railroad street, and placed in the city prison. In 'Squire Thompson's court Monday forenoon one of the men pleaded guilty, but the other maintained his innocence. Miller is in the county jail awaiting the action of the grand jury but Lewis furnished the $200 bond fixed by 'Squire Thomson and was released Monday afternoon. The thieves were arrested by Officers Moore and Deatherage who saw them going down the Wabash tracks a short distance west of the passenger station at a late hour Sunday night. They were carrying a bag in which were seven fat hens with their necks broken, still warm.

Oswald Jenkins, colored, is in the county jail on a charge of disorderly conduct as the result of an altercation with Mrs. Lillie Roberts, a colored acquaintance of his. When near Illinois hotel building Sunday night, Night Capt. Trahey heard cries and found the cause to be Jenkins who had been drinking and was abusing the colored women roundly. When near the W. D. Cody warehouse on North Sandy street, the offender, it would appear, made a clever dodge and slipped out of his coat, making his getaway with such speed that he noticed neither the shots fired at him by the captain nor the approach of Policeman Murgatroyd who met him and began to use his revolver also. He was landed in prison by the two officers and hauled before 'Squire Thomson yesterday morning but failed to give bond.

Walter Hedrick met up the same night with a possible hold-up man but obtained the assistance of officers Baker and Moore and came out of the experience none the worse for the momentary fright he felt when a suspicious looking character stepped out of the shadows and asked where he was going. When intercepted Mr. Hedrick was on his way home and was proceeding along the south side of East North street near O'Donnell's garage. He did not reply to the stranger but went after the officers. The men had sight of a fleeing form but to far away to stand a chance of catching the fellow.
